

House Resolution No.

Whereas, Jennie Mae Hitchye-Jarrett was born to Goldman and Cordelia Ingram-Hitchye on November 7, 1921, in Tallahassee, Oklahoma, and was living in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, on May 7, 2003, when God took her home to the love and beauty of His everlasting light; and

Whereas, Jennie Jarrett will be greatly missed by her grieving family whose members include her children, Sandra Anita, Jennifer Kathryn, and Ronald Earl; one son-in-law, Joseph Beasley; five grandchildren and their spouses, Rodney and Kim, Roderick and Melinda, Tanya and Rich, Shoto, and Ronald; eleven great-grandchildren; her adopted daughter, Carla Webb Macklin; one brother and sister-in-law, William Percy and Delois Hitchye; one sister, Loretta Gilkey; longtime special friend, Michael Goines; and a host of other family members and friends; and

Whereas, Jennie Jarrett had also nurtured a very special relationship of love and devotion with other members of her family who preceded her in death, including her parents, Goldman and Cordelia Ingram-Hitchye; her step-mother, Barthia Lonia Wallace-Hitchye; and six siblings; and

Whereas, Jennie Jarrett graduated from Booker T. Washington High School in Tulsa, Oklahoma, received an undergraduate degree in business education at Langston University as well as real estate certification at Tulsa Business College, and earned a Master's degree in social work at Atlanta University; and

Whereas, retired as of December 30, 1983, Jennie Jarrett was a longtime employee of the Department of Human Services, where she had distinguished herself as an investigator, social worker, and case worker for many years; and

Whereas, Jennie Jarrett was a member of the Amos Memorial C.M.E. Church in Oklahoma City, where she was affectionately known as The Boss Lady and served on the Stewardess Board, the Missionary Society, and the Church Board of Trustees:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously in paying final tribute to Jennie Jarrett and in expressing to her family our deepest sympathy at this difficult time of tremendous personal loss; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for the loved ones of the late Jennie Mae Hitchye-Jarrett.
